

INCREASE THE IMPACT OF YOUR SALES KICKOFF MEETING

Ensure your SKO has a lasting impact — connect, align, and inspire your team with a mobile event app by DoubleDutch.

Relay Important Info Easily

Keep your team in the know by sharing all agenda and event details in one, secure place. Deliver important announcements instantly through promoted posts and push notifications.

Keep the Team Engaged

Create a memorable and engaging kickoff with in-app gamification. Generate friendly leaderboard competition with points and badges and identify top influencers at the same time.

Make Your Team Successful

Close the training gap by reinforcing session material. Keep session attendees engaged with polls and surveys. Make note-taking effortless and upload presentations for immediate access.

Inspire Meaningful Action

Amplify company vision and team goals in the activity feed. Encourage team members to celebrate each other and share best practices, through status updates, photos, and comments.

Drive Purposeful Connections

Create networking opportunities within a private social network. Build a strong sales team by connecting team members based on areas of expertise, interests, and more.

Improve Every Year

Get immediate feedback and make proactive changes on the fly. Improve next year's kickoff by uncovering insights on sessions, speakers, attendee happiness, and more.
